The Trimester 1 2023 Timetable will be available on the APIC website under timetables before enrolment commences.

The schedule lists current classes and provides all the relevant details of the class: day, time, unit code, unit name, class name and teacher. The timetable on the website also indicates seat availability. The list can be filtered by class (Select Unit(s)) or day (Select Day(s)). Classes are set to Australian Eastern Daylight Time (AEDT), students may change the time zone by selecting their time zone on the Class details (Time zones) page. Students can check which units are offered in Trimester 1 2023 for their course on the Units offered by course page.

Please note: the timetable is only indicative and subject to change. To confirm which units and classes are available to you, go to the online enrolment page of your Student Portal.
