The Trimester 1 2022 Timetable will be available on the APIC website under timetables before enrolment commences.

The schedule lists current classes and provides all the relevant details of the class: day, time, unit code, unit name, class name and teacher. The timetable on the website also indicates seat availability. The list can be filtered by class (Select Unit(s)) or day (Select Day(s)). Classes are set to Australian Eastern Daylight Time (AEDT), students may change the time zone by selecting their time zone on the Class details (Time zones) page. Students can check which units are offered in Trimester 1 2022 for their course on the Units offered by course page.

Please note: the timetable is only indicative and subject to change. To confirm which units and classes are available to you, go to the online enrolment page of your Student Portal.

For information on how to enrol, please watch this tutorial.

If a student has any questions regarding their enrolment, they should contact APIC Student Services:
