1. Purpose

This document outlines the policy for Work Integrated Learning (WIL) at the Asia Pacific International College (APIC). WIL provides students with opportunities to integrate academic learning with its application in the workplace.

The purpose of this policy is to establish the principles and conditions for the implementation and management of WIL in accordance with accreditation standards. It aims to ensure that WIL experiences are high-quality, safe, and beneficial for all stakeholders, including students, staff, the College, and partner organisations.

2. Scope

This policy applies to:

- all approved WIL activities in undergraduate and postgraduate units and courses;
- all students engaged in approved WIL activities;
- all staff; and
- all partner organisations.

3. Definitions

Item	Definition
Work Integrated Learning (WIL)	Educational activities that integrate theory with the practice of work within a purposefully designed curriculum as part of a course. As per TEQSA's WIL Guidance Note , WIL activities may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• professional workplace placements (also known as internships, clinical placements, fieldwork, practicums) whether local, interstate, or international.• online or virtual WIL (e.g., telehealth) with real clients or industry input.• industry-partnered projects in the classroom (e.g., hackathons, incubators/start-ups) that involve industry, community, or professional partners.• a simulated work environment with industry input, consultation, or assessment, or activities in other contexts involving industry or community partners.
Partner organisation	An external entity that provides WIL opportunities for students.

4. Policy Statement

APIC is committed to providing high-quality WIL experiences that enhance student learning, employability, and professional development.

All WIL activities must align with the College's academic standards, comply with relevant legislation and accreditation requirements, adhere to ethical practices, and ensure the safety and wellbeing of students, staff and partner organisations and their staff.

5. Principles

WIL must:

- be purposefully aligned with course learning outcomes and relevant professional standards and be assessed against those outcomes and standards;
- prioritise student learning and development, especially in creating opportunities for the application of theory to real-world practice;
- cultivate and maintain mutually beneficial relationships with partner organisations;
- ensure equitable access for all students;
- be regularly reviewed and improved to maintain high standards.

6. Practices

- Design and Approval: All WIL must comply with relevant state or Commonwealth legislation, professional accreditation requirements, and APIC policies. WIL activities are designed to ensure that graduates meet industry standards. In accordance with the Course Development, Review and Improvement Policy, WIL must be approved by the Academic Board and build towards the learning outcomes of a course and meet other HESF 2021 requirements, including those relating to staff qualifications, professional accreditation and student support tailored to the needs of the cohort.
- Student Preparation: Students must be thoroughly briefed on their rights, responsibilities, and expectations before commencing WIL.
- Student Supervision and Support: Students must receive structured and formalised supervision and support during WIL. WIL Educators (workplace supervisors) must be suitably qualified, experienced, and meet all requirements of the HESF 2021 and any other prescribed requirements, including professional accreditation requirements.
- Assessment: Assessment in WIL must reflect both academic and workplace learning outcomes and align with the Assessment and Moderation Policy and Assessment and Moderation Procedure, and relevant industry, practice and professional standards.
- Partner Organisation Engagement: APIC will establish formal agreements with partner organisations that outline roles and responsibilities to ensure the success of WIL.
- Risk Management: APIC will secure adequate insurance coverage for WIL and will implement comprehensive risk assessments for all WIL activities to ensure student safety and compliance with relevant policies.
- Evaluation and Quality Assurance: APIC will implement a quality assurance process for WIL, ensuring they meet both College and industry standards.
- Student Performance and Conduct: Students are expected to maintain high academic performance, professional behaviour, and ethical conduct, in line with the APIC Student Code of Conduct.
- Grievances and Conflict Resolution: APIC is committed to facilitating fair and timely resolution of grievances and conflicts during WIL, in line with the Student Academic Grievances and Appeals Policy and Procedure.

A full description of the procedures related to each of these WIL practices can be found in the Work Integrated Learning Procedure for each course.

7. Roles and Responsibilities

Students participating in WIL are responsible for:

- a) completing any preparation obligations for the WIL in accordance with APIC and WIL partners' requirements;
- b) meeting the expectations of professional behaviour;
- c) observing reasonable directions from the WIL partner organisation;
- d) maintaining satisfactory performance and progression during WIL; and
- e) contacting the College promptly should an issue or incident occur during WIL.

The Asia Pacific International College (APIC) is responsible for:

- a) developing, implementing, and maintaining policies, processes and systems that promote a high quality, safe and regulatory compliant WIL for students and partners;
- b) taking effective steps to monitor and support the wellbeing and safety of students engaged in WIL;
- c) providing appropriate resourcing, staffing, and academic oversight for the delivery of WIL;
- d) ensuring there are clear process capable of resolving issues students may have with WIL aspects of their course, as well as managing critical incidents should they eventuate;
- e) providing appropriate academic and/or other support if needed;
- f) monitoring the partner organisations engaged in WIL and providing appropriate feedback and/or other support if needed; and
- g) reporting to external agencies and accrediting bodies about WIL experiences as required.

WIL partner organisations are responsible for:

- a) meeting preparation obligations for the WIL experience in accordance with APIC's requirements;
- b) providing a safe workplace environment with appropriate supervision and feedback to support the student's learning through WIL;
- c) communicating with and providing feedback to APIC and the student(s) as required;
- d) appropriately inducting students to the workplace as part of WIL; and
- e) contacting APIC promptly should an issue or incident occur during WIL.

8. Governance, quality, and reporting

WIL will be appropriately documented, with records to be retained and stored in accordance with the Student Records Management Policy.

Reports on WIL will be provided annually to the Academic Board, which will monitor matters including, but not limited to:

- resources and staffing for WIL;
- the quality of WIL opportunities for, and experiences of, students in units and courses;
- outcomes across student cohorts, of units and courses that incorporate WIL experiences; and
- the ability of the College's WIL framework to respond to changes in the settings for WIL delivery.

The Dean (Academic) and Deputy Dean (Programs) are responsible for regulatory compliance and reporting to external agencies, such as accrediting bodies.
